OUR MISSION AND GOALS

Arrupe Jesuit High School, founded in 2003, is a co-educational, college preparatory, Catholic secondary school that serves economically-disadvantaged students from Denver's inner-city neighborhoods.

The mission of Arrupe Jesuit High School is to break the cycle of poverty through education and work. Arrupe students fund the majority of their own high school tuition by participating in the Arrupe Corporate Work-Study Program.

Students work one day each week for a local corporation while pursuing a rigorous college preparatory curriculum during the rest of the week. Each year, 100% of Arrupe graduates, most of them first generation college attendees, are accepted into colleges and universities. The 2007 and 2008 classes graduated a total of 103 students. Collectively, these students earned more than $4,100,000 in merit-based scholarships.

ARRUPE JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL IS TRULY A SCHOOL THAT WORKS!
