9News: Every Senior to College

9News recently highlighted the ambitious future plans of Michelle Spreutels and her fellow seniors. 86% of our first graduating class will be the first member of their family to attend college. We expect every Arrupe graduate to leave high school prepared to continue his or her education in college and beyond.

The 9News story reads in part:

Michelle works at St. Anthony's Central Hospital. She doesn't earn a paycheck; she earns tuition money. Every student at Arrupe works in a business five days each month. They earn their high school education and, hopefully, the desire for more.

Denver Post: Arrupe Is a Model for Success

The DENVER POST

The Denver Post featured an editorial saluting Arrupe's seniors in their March 13th issue. The editorial begins,

A success story is unfolding all too quietly at Arrupe Jesuit High School in northwest Denver. It's a story that deserves to be shouted out loud.

Arrupe Seniors College Bound

With nearly three months remaining until graduation, Arrupe students have submitted over 200 college applications and over 80% have already received offers of admission from one or more school.

Featured Benefactors

Magis Night Sponsors

We are honored and humbled by the generous support provided by the 47 sponsors of the 2007 Arrupe Magis Night.

Their support and that of the many, many people who joined us on February 24th help us keep a rigorous college preparatory education affordable for the neediest families in our community. Thank you!

Arrupe Launches 'Partners' Scholarship Program

Arrupe students earn the majority of the cost of their education by working at an entry-level corporate job five days per month, and parents contribute additional tuition according to their means. We recently launched the Arrupe Partners Program to bridge the small gap between family support and the full cost of an Arrupe education.

Partners commit to supporting the education of an Arrupe student for one year. Their $1,500 investment provides the resources to prepare students for success in college and beyond.

We are honored by the commitment made by the 121 individuals and groups who have joined us as founding members of the Arrupe Partners Program.

CWSP Info Breakfast: April 4

Arrupe anticipates growing by approximately thirty students as we enter our fifth year, bringing our student body to nearly 300 students. We continue to recruit new employers for next year as our Corporate Work Study Program grows hand-in-hand with the school.

We will host an informational breakfast at the Denver Country Club for businesses interested in learning more about our Corporate Work Study Program and how to invest in Arrupe students. We hope you might join us or share this invitation to learn about Arrupe with colleagues.

To learn more or to RSVP, contact Dan O'Brien at (303) 455-7449 ext. 235 or by email at dobrien@arrupejesuit.com.
